

A Trip to Philadelphia for Some Peace Valley Students

On December 13, Peace Valley's resource room students in third through fifth grades took a trip by train to Philadelphia. They went to see the Dickens Exhibit at Macy's after reading Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol. While there, the students and their chaperones visited the Comcast Center to see the Christmas show, Love Park for a photo, the City Hall Christmas tree, and the light show at Macy's. Everyone had a wonderful time!
