

Plumstead Christian School Students Chosen for Prestigious All-Eastern Orchestra

Plumstead Christian School is proud to announce that senior Kerianne Roberts, harpist, and junior Dan Christensen, cellist, have been selected to All-Eastern Orchestra. The All-Eastern Orchestra is comprised of the finest musicians from Maine through the District of Columbia and will assemble as an orchestra at Morgan State University in Baltimore, Maryland from March 31 through April 3, 2011.

In order to qualify for this prestigious selection, both student musicians were first chosen for their respective All-State Music Festival. Kerianne and Dan participated in the PA All-State Music Festival in April 2010 in Pittsburgh, PA. In order to get to the state festival they auditioned and were selected for District XI (Bucks & Montgomery Counties) and Region VI (Bucks, Montgomery, Chester, Delaware, and Philadelphia Counties) Orchestras.

Kerianne Roberts is the daughter of Pastor and Mrs. Thomas Roberts. Kerianne has studied harp for 8 years. She studies under Dr. Elaine Christy. In addition to the harp, Kerianne also plays clarinet in the Plumstead Christian School concert band and is a vocalist in the school's choir and for the school's select Madrigal Singers.

Daniel Christensen is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Chris Christensen. Dan has played cello for 10 years and studies with Mr. Jesus Morales. Dan performs with the Philadelphia Sinfonia and participates in the chamber music program at the Settlement School of Music. In addition to the cello, Dan plays the baritone and piano, is a member of the school's handbell choir, and sings with the school's choir and the school's select Madrigal Singers.

About Plumstead Christian School

Plumstead Christian School is in its 63rd year as a Christ-centered, interdenominational, college preparatory school that serves kindergarten through twelfth grade students on two spacious campuses in Bucks County, PA. The school's mission is to provide a caring community where students are educated to think Biblically, serve effectively, and lead Christ-centered lives. Through the years Plumstead Christian School has developed a solid reputation in academics, athletics, and the arts within the context of a safe and nurturing environment. Ninety six percent of graduates attend colleges and universities, and recent graduates have been accepted to a variety of top ranking schools including Grove City College, Lehigh University, Liberty University, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Rutgers University, Wake Forest University, Wheaton College, and Villanova. Plumstead Christian School is online at www.plumsteadchristian.org.