Letters are coming to the kindergarten room!

Kindergarten is participating in a Letter Exchange with 25 other kindergarten and pre-k classes from all over the USA. Based on the book Chicka Chicka Boom Boom by Bill Martin, Jr., we have gotten letters from Texas, Oregon, North Carolina and Tennessee so far. Each class was assigned a letter in which they had to make a capital and lower case letter and decorate the letter with things that begin with the letter's sound.

Our class was given the letter "Rr." Since our school year began with two hurricanes and lots of rain, we decorated our capital "R" with a beautiful rainbow, a dark rain cloud, and sparkling raindrops. We turned our lower case "r" into rockets (some of them red) racing into space carrying robots.

After we finished decorating our Rr's, we put them in envelopes and hand delivered them to the mailman. We anxiously await the mail each day to see which letters come to our class. As we get the letters, we hang them on the coconut tree in our room.
