

Pat Fitzpatrick Shares His Book at Hunting Park Christian Academy

On Wednesday, February 9, Plumstead Christian School's Headmaster, Pat Fitzpatrick, was a guest author at Hunting Park Christian Academy, a K-8 school in one of the poorest areas of Philadelphia. Mr. Fitzpatrick read his book, The Giraffe and the Oxpecker: I Need You and You Need Me to pre-K through second grade. The children loved the story, and listened attentively and while responding with wonderful questions and comments. Mr. Fitzpatrick even read his newest book ---without any pictures---about the relationship between the ants and the acacia tree in Africa to an appreciative first grade class! It was a delightful experience for the students and teachers at HPCA!
